

Tim James – Brief Biography

Dr James is Director of Research and Consulting at the L. William Seidman Research Institute and Research Professor in Economics in the W.P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University. Dr James gained his BA and MA from the University of Warwick and his PhD from the University of Southampton in the UK.

Dr James has extensive experience in consulting for both the public and private sectors internationally. A selection of clients he has advised include the Prime Minister of the UK, the European Commission, the Commonwealth Secretariat, the state of New Jersey, the Texas Department of Transport, the Arizona Investment Council, Goldman Sachs, Morgan Stanley, UBS and the BBC.

Prior to joining ASU, Dr James was Director of Economics and Business Consulting at Halcrow Group. Dr James has also worked with Oxford Economic Research Associates (Oxera) and Maxwell Stamp PLC. He has been a member of faculty at Stirling University, Loughborough University, the University of Sheffield in the UK and EM Lyon in France.