

Upcoming School of Art events:

April 19: Letterpress studio, School of Art, rm 45

Letterpress Earth Day Keepsake

Please drop by the School of Art's letterpress studio anytime between 10:00am and 2pm on Friday, April 19 and handprint your own keepsake that includes a new poem by Angie Dell, current MFA Creative Writing candidate, combined with graphics by Maria Talavera and Aimee Leon. Designed by members of ASU's artist book collective ABBA and printed on recycled handmade cardboard paper locally produced by the Paper Studio. Club members will guide you through the process of letterpress printing your own free take away item. This community-based print project celebrates environmentally conscious practices worldwide.

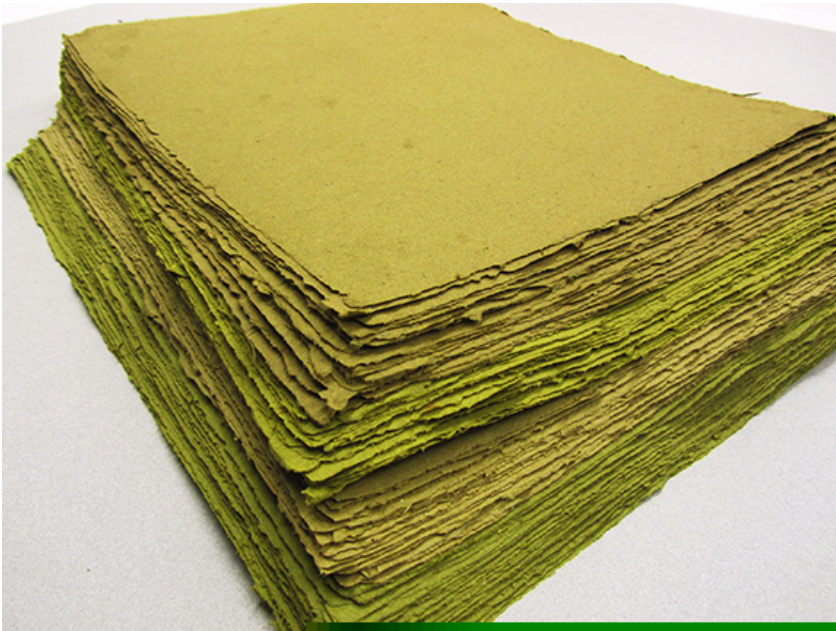

Open shop: April 19, 10:00am to 2pm
Free and open to the public.

The letterpress studio is located in room 45, basement, Art building.

For more information

Aimee Leon: Aimee.Leon@asu.edu ABBA President

Daniel Mayer: daniel.mayer@asu.edu faculty advisor
480-965-3713

Recycled cardboard paper ready for printing